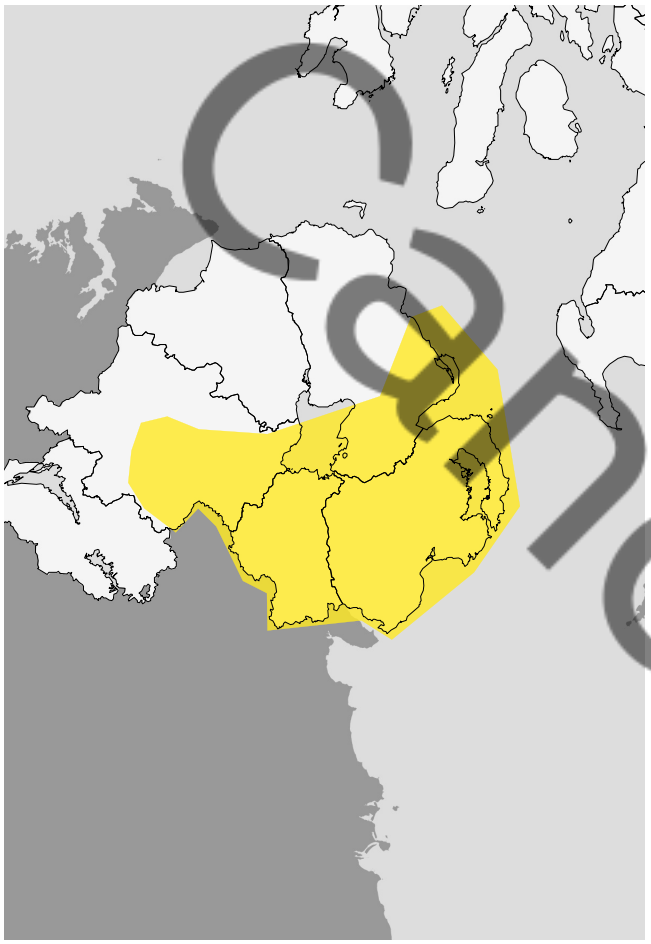
12:00 Mon 30 Oct 2023



Frequent and heavy showers causing some flooding and disruption to travel.

What to expect

- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely

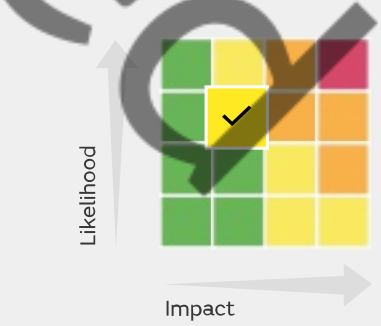
Cancelled

Further details

Frequent heavy showers will affect southern and eastern parts of Northern Ireland on Sunday night and Monday morning. 10 mm of rain is possible within an hour, with a few places seeing overall accumulations of 25-35 mm where the most frequent showers occur, most likely across County Down. Saturated ground conditions due to the recent very wet weather will increase the chance of flooding impacts.

Reason for cancellation

Warning to be replaced by a new one covering higher impacts.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
